- Closing date for entries is 21st August 2017

Tips for entries

You can use whatever materials and methods you'd like. It might be something straightforward like colouring pens or pencils, or you may wish to experiment with paint, pastels or charcoal. How about a collage of items from your community?

The great thing about the competition is that you literally do have a blank canvas to work from. As long as you submit your original entry, you can create it any way you like.

You might also like to think about who you ask to make the artwork. We would love to see church communities working on their entries in collaboration, making best use of the wide range of experience and ideas they have available. If you have lots of people wanting to enter, why not run your own competition to decide which piece you'll send in?

The winning church will receive a prize of £10,000!

Four runners-up will win £2,500 each!

Winners will be invited to an unveiling in a prestigious London venue before the mural goes on a tour of cathedrals.
