

'Fabric of the Community' - The Great Community Mural Competition 2017

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following competition rules ("Rules") govern your participation in the Ecclesiastical Church Competition 2017 ("Competition") being operated by Ecclesiastical Insurance Office Plc, registered company number 24869 ("Ecclesiastical").

In these Rules the terms "we", "us", "our" and "ours" mean Ecclesiastical and the terms "you", "your", and "yours" mean the person submitting any content or other material to our servers or by post under these Rules.

Before submitting any application for entry into the Competition we strongly advise that you read these Rules carefully. Failure to comply with these Rules could lead to your disqualification without reasons being given or opportunity for challenge.

Competition Rules

1. This Competition is open to any Anglican place of worship located in the United Kingdom. Entries may be made by any individual aged 18 years or over who is authorised to act on behalf of any Anglican place of worship in the United Kingdom.
2. This Competition is not open to anyone other than Anglican places of worship in the United Kingdom. Anyone directly or indirectly associated or connected in any way with this Competition (whether an Ecclesiastical employee or contractor of Ecclesiastical or otherwise) shall not be entitled to enter the Competition.
3. All information detailing how to enter this Competition forms part of these Rules. It is a condition of entry that all Rules are accepted as final and that you agree to abide by these Rules. The decision of the judges is final and no correspondence will be entered into. Submission of an entry will be taken to mean acceptance of these Rules.
4. The closing date for entries to the Competition is 21 August 2017. However, please note that this is the closing date for entries to arrive at Ecclesiastical's offices. We therefore advise factoring in plenty of time for your entry to arrive with us. Late, illegible, incomplete, defaced or corrupt entries will be void and not be accepted. No responsibility can be accepted for lost entries and proof of transmission will not be accepted as proof of receipt. Entries must not be sent through third parties or agencies.
5. Only ONE entry may be submitted for each individual Anglican place of worship. No purchase is necessary. In the event of receiving more than one entry per Anglican place of worship, the first submission that arrives at our office will be the single entry that we will accept into the judging process.
6. Entries must be submitted in landscape form in A3 format. Alongside the entry submission, entrants must complete and return an official entry form including contact details. The official entry form and template submission document can be sourced from within the May edition of Church Matters. The official entry form can also be downloaded from www.ecclesiastical.com/churchcomp. Entrants can use a normal A3 piece of paper or tape two sheets of A4 paper together if they cannot access the template submission document, but the official entry form must accompany this when returning it.

7. Entries must be returned in an A4 envelope (with the submission itself folded in half once) via post to FREEPOST ECCLESIASTICAL. You do not need to write anything else on the envelope. Please DO NOT USE the envelope included within the May edition of Church Matters to return your submission. Please note entries will not be returned.

8. It is your responsibility to ensure that any content submitted in the application has the full backing of your Anglican place of worship and does not infringe the copyright of any third party. By entering this Competition, you warrant that submissions in the entry form constitute your own work and you own any copyright that applies to it.

9. Copyright in all entries for this Competition remains with the respective entrants. However, each entrant hereby grants Ecclesiastical a non-exclusive royalty-free licence and explicit consent to feature any of the submitted entries in any of their publications, websites and/or other promotional material. By participating in the Competition you hereby consent to Ecclesiastical processing your personal data for the purposes of running this Competition. Any personal data submitted by you will be processed in line with our privacy policy, which includes contacting you from time to time with details of other products and services available from Ecclesiastical, which we believe may be of interest to you. However, if you do not wish to receive this information, please inform us accordingly.

10. All entries must be the original design. No photocopies will be accepted.

11. Entrants are welcome to collaborate on their submission. The submission does not have to be the work of one individual. However, the design must be original and must not feature copyrighted material from another source or belonging to anyone else.

12. Completed entries are not restricted to drawings; you can use any material or method you like as long as the finished piece is in landscape form in A3 format.

13. If there is multiple interest from your Anglican place of worship making a submission, we advise you hold your own internal competition to determine which entry will be submitted on behalf of your Anglican place of worship.

14. The theme of your submission should be based on your visual interpretation of: 'The role of your church in the community'. This can be interpreted however you wish, but here are some suggestions:

- A visual representation of how the church makes the people in the community feel
- A visual representation of significant events / services that the church holds
- A visual representation of how the church engages with the community
- A visual representation of the different people that use the church and what they do there

15. Once the Competition has closed, our judging panel will consider all eligible submitted entries. The judging panel will be comprised of representatives from Ecclesiastical and other independent individuals.

16. The best entries as judged by the judging panel will feature on the finished printed Mural, which will be displayed at a select number of cathedrals around the UK from October 2017.

17. The judging panel will determine the best entries based on the following weighted criteria:

- Interpretation of the theme
- Visual impact
- Originality of design

The decision of the judging panel will be final and may not be challenged.

18. In total, five prizes will be allocated as follows:

- The Main Prize - the best entry (as determined by the judging panel) will be awarded a cash prize of £10,000 and have their entry digitally printed and featured at the centre of the Mural
- The Four Runner-up Prizes - the next best four entrants will each receive a prize of £2,500 and have their entries digitally printed and featured around the Main Prize winner on the Mural

Together these winning entries will constitute the “Winners” and each be a “Winner” of the Competition.

19. Each prize is non-transferrable and cannot be replaced if lost or stolen or not taken up for any reason.

20. Each Winner will be contacted following the judging panel’s decision and will be notified that they are a Winner within [number] days following the closing of the Competition.

21. Each of the Winners will be invited to a special award ceremony in London during October 2017 (the “Award Ceremony”) where the Mural will be unveiled. The Winners will be awarded the Prizes at the Award Ceremony.

22. If for any reason a Winner is not able to attend the Award Ceremony, Ecclesiastical will make separate arrangements to distribute the Prize to the Winner after it has taken place.

23. The Winners may be required to take part in publicity with Ecclesiastical.

24. The Winners may be disclosed to anyone who writes within one month after the Award Ceremony enclosing a stamped addressed envelope to Ecclesiastical Insurance Office Plc, Beaufort House, Brunswick Road, Gloucester GL1 1JZ.

25. We reserve the right to amend these Rules at our entire discretion without notice to you, although any such amendments will be posted on the Ecclesiastical’s website www.ecclesiastical.com as soon as practicable. We additionally reserve the right to change the judging panel or cancel the Competition without liability to you should we consider it necessary to do so. No correspondence will be entered into in respect of any cancellations.

26. English law applies and the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts shall prevail.

27. Nothing in these Rules shall limit our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence, for fraudulent misrepresentation or for any other liability that cannot be excluded or limited under applicable law or regulation.

28. Except as provided above and provided that this clause will not operate as to enable us to refuse to pay or distribute any Prizes to those adjudged as Winners, we hereby exclude all liability of any nature or however arising (including where due to our negligence) to you or any other person in respect of the Competition, including without limitation, any claim you may seek to bring in respect of the loss of a chance should you be unable to upload your entry to our servers for any reason, or for the loss of a chance to establish or enhance any reputation you may claim to have.

29. Except as provided above, in no event shall our liability to you, however arising, in respect of any Competition exceed the sum of £100.

28. If you have any queries regarding these Rules, please email weboffice@ecclesiastical.com
